POC – Deficiency #A1299 – 8:36-18.3 (a) (5) Infection Prevention and Control Services

- In response to this deficiency, inservices will be held with employees to review proper handwashing techniques, training on infection control through proper handwashing and assisting residents in proper handwashing prior to eating in the dining room and social hour refreshments.
- 2. The facility identified all residents to have the potential to be affected by the same deficient practice.
- 3. Inservices were completed with all Dietary Staff regarding handwashing and proper infection control procedures when serving:
 - A. Servers washing their hands prior to meal service. (This task may not have been observed by the inspector as this takes place in the kitchen).
 - B. Servers are to wash their hands again if they assist a resident in a wheelchair to their table or touch that resident during service
 - C. Servers are to wash their hands if they touch their personal mask.
 - D. Servers are to offer and encourage residents to wash their hands prior to eating in the dining room.
 - E. Servers were instructed when serving to use a tray or to ensure their thumbs do not cross over the ridge of the plate onto the plate, holding the handles of cups, not the rims.
 - F. Signs have been posted on the doors in the kitchen offer visual reminders regarding handwashing.

Inservices were completed with Department Heads and Nursing Staff:

A. Inservices were completed with Nursing Staff and Department Heads regarding the above listed items to ensure if they are serving in the dementia unit or assisting in the dining room, these same practices are being followed.

Inservices were completed with Activities Department:

A. Inservices were completed with the Activities Department to ensure when serving social hour snacks or assisting in the dining room, these same practices are being followed.

- 4. To ensure these deficient practices are corrected moving forward, the Food Service Director will observe one meal five days a week for two weeks, then one meal weekly ongoing to ensure the handwashing practices are being followed. Any observation of the practices not being followed will result in the employee receiving additional training regarding proper handwashing.
- 5. To ensure these deficient practices are corrected moving forward, the Cottage Director will observe on meal five days per week for two weeks, then on meal weekly ongoing to ensure the handwashing practices are being followed. Any observation of the practices not being followed will result in the employee receiving additional training regarding proper handwashing.
